

I listen to K-LOVE FM, a translator in Minneapolis (90.7 and 90.3 FM). This station provides thousands of listeners in our local area with family-friendly programming. Replacing this translator with a LPFM station would mean we lose the only station of this format in our western suburbs. Providing a positive influence with contemporary Christian music impacts our kids, and it would be in the public interest to not disrupt its service. Thank you.